

The Journal of College & University Law Presents:

ARMED VIOLENCE ON CAMPUS: A SEARCH FOR SOLUTIONS

A symposium of the intersection of armed violence, gun legislation, and mental health issues on college and university campuses

9:00-9:30 a.m. Opening Remarks

9:30-10:45 a.m. Panel Discussion I

Topic: The debate over campus gun control legislation

Panelists:

Brandi Hephner LaBanc, Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, University of Mississippi

Brian Hemphill, University President, West Virginia State

Phillip Johnson, NDPD Chief of Police, University of Notre Dame

James Brockmole, Acting Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies, University of Notre Dame

11:00 a.m. -12:15 p.m. Panel Discussion II

Topic: Student Mental Health Issues on Campus

Panelists:

Barbara Lee, Professor of Human Resource Management, Rutgers University

Susan Duncan, Interim Law School Dean, University of Louisville

Amanda Zelechowski, Assistant Professor of Psychology, Valparaiso University

1:30-2:30 p.m. Keynote Address

Dr. Gene Deisinger, Director of Threat Management Services, Virginia Tech

Thursday, March 27, 2014

McCartan Courtroom

Notre Dame Law School

The Journal of College and University Law

Cosponsored by:

Notre Dame Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts

Direct all questions and concerns to Krysta Gumbiner at kgumbine@nd.edu