

The Hesburgh Lecture Series Presents

Deadly Drones

A Lecture: Co-Sponsored by the Notre Dame Club of Charlottesville and the Army
Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School

Thursday, March 29

1530 hours (3:30 pm)

Army JAG School Room 132

Free and open to the public

Professor Mary Ellen O'Connell,
University of Notre Dame Law School

The author of The Power and Purpose of International Law (OUP 2008), three casebooks, four edited collections, and more than sixty articles and book chapters, Professor O'Connell has been active in the American Society of International Law, the German Society of International Law, the International Institute for Humanitarian Law, the International Law Association, and the Council on Foreign Relations. She teaches contracts as well as a number of courses in the area of international law.

Come hear Professor O'Connell in an exploration of the legal, moral, and strategic challenges associated with the use of unmanned aerial vehicles known as drones.

Contact the ND Club of Charlottesville at NDClubCharlottesville@gmail.com for additional information.